Canon creates affordable color

In 1987, Canon introduced the first color laser copier, setting the standard for high-quality color.

Today, Canon introduces the Color Laser Copier 320. An affordable, high-quality color copier designed for businesses of all sizes. From copy shops to small businesses to busy corporate departments and workgroups — the CLC 320 is the right solution for your needs. And with a ColorPASS Series controller or a PS-IPU, the CLC 320 is the perfect Color Laser Printer for any network environment.
